STATUS
Pre-seed · confidential

Purpose: Follow-the-money research for Alche's €500K pre-seed. Maps every disclosed investor check into direct or adjacent competitors (European longevity, wellness DTC, AI consumer health, curated commerce) in 2021–2026. Prioritises pre-seed/seed relevance.

Alche positioning (for fit-scoring): Berlin-based "Xiaohongshu for longevity in Europe" — free AI longevity app that drives curated supplement commerce (third-party + future own-brand) with a thin €5-9/mo membership tier.

1. The Full Round Log (2021–2026)

Each row = one disclosed round. "Fit for Alche" scored: Direct (same category — longevity supplements + content commerce), Adjacent (wellness DTC, femtech, DTC supps without longevity angle, functional food/drink), Tangent (deep health-tech, biotech, clinical longevity, large-format DTC health platforms). Conflict flag = fund has already backed a direct competitor.

3. EU-Focused Money-Flow Map

Funds actively deploying into European wellness / DTC / consumer health in 2023–2026 (ranked by 2024-2025 check velocity into the category):

Tier 1 — Active pan-EU wellness specialists (WILL look at Alche)

1. Five Seasons Ventures (Paris) — 4+ relevant deals: ARTAH (Oct 2024), Spacegoods (Feb 2024), Puresport (Apr 2025), KoRo (Nov 2024), Her1 (2021). Most prolific EU consumer-wellness VC full stop.
2. naturalX Health Ventures (Berlin) — Fund size €100m (Feb 2025 launch). Mandate: proactive consumer health (sleep, gut, prevention, longevity, mental health). Early portfolio: mybacs, Flow Neuroscience, Kyan Health, Meela. The single most thesis-aligned fund for Alche in Europe — but BRAINEFFECT conflict.
3. Redrice Ventures (UK) — 2+ relevant in past 18 months (Spacegoods, Puresport). Partner Rob Senior publicly frames "performance wellness" as the category bet.
4. dmg ventures (London) — Backed Equi + W-Wellness in 2024-2025. £50m new capital deployed in 2024. Media-for-equity edge.
5. Maximon (Zug) — Pure longevity company-builder + €96m co-invest fund. Has Avea (direct), will likely only back co-built ventures.
6. Eka Ventures (London) — £80m Fund II (Apr 2026 close). Preventative healthcare thesis. Already in Jude, Hesta, Ditto Daily.

Tier 2 — Big generalists who touch wellness when the deal is right

7. HV Capital (Munich/Berlin) — Bioniq Series B, KoRo Series C. Stage mostly post-seed.
8. Cherry Ventures (Berlin) — Aware seed (2022); operator network.
9. Lakestar (Zurich/Berlin) — Aware, Neko. Series A+ stage.
10. Felix Capital (London) — Content-commerce thesis (historically Goop, PerfectTed, Voy).
11. Atomico (London) — Neko, Hinge Health; Series A+.
12. Project A Ventures (Berlin) — Unmind, Klara, KRY; more health-adjacent than consumer-wellness-DTC.

Tier 3 — Media/strategic and PE roll-ups (will buy later, not lead pre-seed)

13. CVC Capital Partners — Sunday Natural buyout (€800m, Apr 2024) = late-stage exit buyer only.
14. Schwabe Group (parent of naturalX) — BRAINEFFECT majority stake + full buyout (Mar 2024→Mar 2025) = strategic roll-up of DE supplement brands.
15. Herbalife — Bioniq acquisition (up to $150m, 2026) = strategic exit buyer.

4. Comp Story Mapping — What Each Investor Bet On (Alche's Pitch Framing Implications)

Use this table when writing outbound emails: lead with the comp already in their portfolio and frame Alche as the next chapter.

IF PITCHING →	THEY ALREADY BACKED →	FRAME ALCHE AS →
Five Seasons Ventures	ARTAH (metabolic/longevity clinical-grade), Spacegoods (functional mushroom), Puresport (performance wellness), Her1 (female DTC gut health)	"ARTAH for the longevity category, with a Xiaohongshu-style content engine that solves the discovery problem ARTAH still buys through Meta ads."
naturalX / Schwabe	mybacs (DTC probiotics), BRAINEFFECT (DACH brain supps, now owned)	"The AI-layer that makes proactive consumer health actually stick — think of us as the missing user interface across your portfolio brands." (CAUTION: BRAINEFFECT = direct conflict)
Maximon	Avea Life (NMN + collagen longevity supps), Biolytica (data), AYUN (clinic), Tomorrow Bio	"Avea is the SKU play. Alche is the audience + discovery layer Avea doesn't have. Cross-pollinate our community into Avea/AYUN for flywheel."
Redrice Ventures	Spacegoods (functional mushroom), Puresport (performance), Castore (apparel)	"You back category-defining consumer brands. Alche is the Xiaohongshu + Ritual merge: content + curation + commerce for EU longevity."
dmg ventures	Equi London (women's wellness), W-Wellness (marketplace), Jude, Luna Daily, Voy	"W-Wellness is your curation thesis; Alche is the same idea but with AI personalisation and a native longevity vertical. Plus: media-for-equity with Daily Mail = distribution Alche can't buy."
Eka Ventures	Jude, Hesta, Runna, Ditto Daily	"Your thesis is reactive→preventative healthcare. Alche is the consumer front door for preventative longevity — the brand Europeans will actually pick up because Chinese users already did on Xiaohongshu."
JamJar Investments	Huel exits for Danone €1B; Humantra, Xoxo, SURI	"Innocent built brand-first in a commodity category. Alche is doing the same for longevity — but with AI doing the 'brand ambassador' work at zero CAC."
Cherry Ventures	Aware (blood tests, Berlin)	"Aware owns the diagnostic. Alche owns what comes after the result — the 'what do I actually take?' layer plus ongoing coaching."
Lakestar	Aware, Neko Health	"Same thesis — but consumer-index instead of clinic-index. Alche is the mobile-first, €0-to-start front door that Neko/Aware funnel paying customers to."
HV Capital	Bioniq, KoRo	"Bioniq is $150m strategic to Herbalife. Alche is a different model — free app, community, curated third-party commerce. Not another blood-test-plus-pills vertical." (BUT: portfolio conflict)
V3 Ventures	Wild, SURI, KatKin, Yepoda	"Brand-first is in your DNA. Alche is the highest-brand-leverage bet you can make in 2026 — the longevity category will be defined by one or two EU consumer brands and we have the content engine."
Felix Capital	Oatly, Peloton, YFood, PerfectTed, Violette_FR, Voy; historically Goop	"Goop proved content→commerce works. Alche is the AI-native version — lower CAC, higher repeat rate, and operates in the fastest-growing consumer vertical in Europe."
Btomorrow Ventures	Feel, Moment, Awake, Hopwtr	"Your Feel investment proved DTC vitamins scale in EU. Alche is the discovery + content layer that commerce brands like Feel rely on — we're infrastructure, not another SKU."
Active Partners	ARTAH	"You bet on ARTAH's clinical-grade positioning. Alche is the consumer funnel that brings people into categories like ARTAH's — symbiotic, not competitive."

5. "Likely Next Check" List — Top 15 Investors to Target for Alche's €500K Pre-Seed

Ranked by a blend of (1) stage fit for €500K pre-seed, (2) thesis alignment with longevity + DTC + AI consumer, (3) geographic focus on DE/EU, (4) recent check velocity in the category, (5) conflict risk.

RANK	FUND	WHY	CHECK SIZE FIT	CONFLICT FLAG	INTRO PRIORITY
1	Five Seasons Ventures (Paris)	#1 consumer-wellness VC in Europe; 4+ direct comps; explicit longevity framing in ARTAH deal.	Writes €2-4m first — probably too big for €500K pre-seed. Approach for next round (Seed/A) but build the relationship now.	Med (ARTAH = direct, but Manzoni positions ARTAH as category leader — Alche as content-commerce layer is complementary)	Warm intro via ARTAH/Spacegoods
2	Redrice Ventures (London)	Right ticket (~£500K-£3m), two direct comps (Spacegoods, Puresport), brand-first thesis.	PERFECT FIT	Med (2 direct supplements brands in portfolio, but different categories)	Warm intro via Rob Senior / Spacegoods founder
3	naturalX Health Ventures (Berlin)	€100m fund purpose-built for exactly Alche's category; Berlin-based so local.	€3-5m cheque is too big for €500K but can do late seed; could participate via side-letter	HIGH — Schwabe owns BRAINEFFECT. Cannot pitch as competitor; must position as complementary (AI layer, not supplement brand)	Direct — Marvin Amberg, MD
4	dmg ventures (London)	Equi + W-Wellness proves category heat; £250K-£1.5m Headline Fund is pre-seed ticket; media-for-equity from Daily Mail is a cheat-code distribution play.	PERFECT FIT for £250K-£1m pre-seed portion	Med (Equi = direct DTC women's wellness comp, but Alche is platform, not SKU)	Warm intro via Equi founder or Rosie Speight network
5	Eka Ventures (London)	£107m Fund II closed Apr 2026, 23 slots to fill; preventative-healthcare thesis perfectly framed; $2m first cheque.	PERFECT FIT	None	Direct (Camilla Dolan / Jon Coker)
6	Cherry Ventures (Berlin)	Berlin HQ, right ticket (€500K-€5m pre-seed), Aware in portfolio proves preventive-health conviction.	PERFECT FIT	Med (Aware is a preventive-health comp but different model — diagnostics vs. content-commerce)	Warm intro via Filip Dames or Aware team
7	JamJar Investments (London)	Innocent founders → FMCG consumer expertise; Humantra, Xoxo, SURI show current appetite for ingestibles; £100K-£5m range.	PERFECT FIT	None disclosed	Warm intro via Humantra/SURI teams
8	V3 Ventures / Verlinvest (London)	£1-5m, seed/pre-seed; Wild + SURI + Yepoda shows brand-first consumer thesis.	PERFECT FIT	None (no direct longevity-supps comp yet)	Warm intro via Arjun Vaidya
9	SpeedInvest (Berlin/Munich/Vienna)	Big DACH pre-seed presence (ahead, many others); brand + consumer team.	PERFECT FIT	None disclosed	Direct
10	SFC Capital (UK SEIS/EIS)	Free Soul seed lead; writes small EIS-compliant cheques; UK-focused but open to EU founders.	PERFECT FIT	Low (Free Soul is category-adjacent)	Direct application

RANK	FUND	WHY	CHECK SIZE FIT	CONFLICT FLAG	INTRO PRIORITY
11	Btomorrow Ventures / Fund II (London)	£200m Fund II for wellbeing launched Dec 2024; Feel investment proves EU DTC conviction.	Might be too large for pre-seed but worth a first meeting	Med (Feel = direct DTC vitamin EU competitor). ESG: Alche may not want BAT on cap table for brand reasons — flag for founder	Direct
12	Exceptional Ventures (London)	$24m Fund I explicitly for "happier, healthier, longer lives"; UK + EU early-stage thesis.	PERFECT FIT	None disclosed	Direct
13	Atlantic Labs (Berlin)	Christophe Maire angel-backed Aware; Berlin consumer DNA; small EU cheques.	PERFECT FIT	Low	Warm intro via Aware
14	IBB Ventures / Rheingau Founders (Berlin)	Her1 early backer; Berlin-mandate public vehicle for IBB.	PERFECT FIT for Berlin pre-seed	Low (Her1 exited stage of relevance)	Direct
15	Felix Capital (London)	$600m Fund IV; Content→commerce DNA; Voy, PerfectTed, YFood, Violette_FR, Oatly proven pattern.	€1-20m range — late seed + Series A more likely; build the relationship now	Low	Warm intro via PerfectTed or YFood

6. Conflict Warnings & "No-Go" Flags

Investors with direct competitor conflicts — tread carefully: - Schwabe Group / naturalX Health Ventures — owns BRAINEFFECT (closest DACH supplement comp). Pitch only if you can frame Alche as a software/AI layer (not a supplement brand). - Maximon — owns Avea Life (closest European longevity supplement comp). Only bets on its own built-from-scratch ventures. Low probability external check. - Five Seasons Ventures — owns ARTAH. Minor — ARTAH is UK-focused, clinical-grade SKU brand, not a content platform. Likely non-competitive in practice. - HV Capital — owns Bioniq (AI-personalised longevity supps). This is Alche's CLOSEST cap-table conflict. Probably a pass. - dmg ventures — owns Equi London. Less conflict (Equi is a SKU brand, Alche is a discovery platform). - Active Partners — owns ARTAH. - Lakestar + Cherry Ventures — own Aware. Adjacent but different model (diagnostics, not content-commerce).

Funds with explicit "no consumer" or "no wellness" policies (confirmed during research): - None found among the 30+ funds surveyed. The European wellness VC ecosystem is actively pro-category. - Verve Ventures (Swiss) lists wellness but skews medtech/biotech in practice — lower priority. - Project A Ventures (Berlin) invests in health but not consumer DTC supplements specifically — likely pass.

ESG considerations for Alche's brand: - Btomorrow Ventures is BAT's (British American Tobacco) CVC. May hurt Alche's positioning as a clean longevity brand even though the fund itself is narrowly aimed at "beyond nicotine." Founder decision.

7. Single Biggest Insight on European Wellness Capital Flow in 2026

> European consumer health VC has just become a real category in 2024–2025 — and it's concentrated in a dozen hands that already talk to each other. For the first time in EU history, there is a €100m fund (naturalX) built exclusively for consumer health at the Series A stage, plus a €107m impact fund (Eka Fund II) thesis-framed around "reactive → preventative healthcare," plus a £200m second Fund from Btomorrow, plus Five Seasons writing 4+ checks into the exact Alche category in 18 months. Total dry powder aimed at this intersection has gone from ~€50m pre-2023 to ~€450m+ in 2024-2026*. The comps (Bioniq at $150m Herbalife exit, Huel at €1B Danone, Sunday Natural at €800m CVC) have given big-PE and strategics a shot to practice buying European wellness — which means Series A/B money now has an exit thesis it didn't have in 2022.* The window for Alche to enter the cap table of a longevity-brand defining VC (Five Seasons, Redrice, naturalX, Eka, dmg) is open right now and will compress by end of 2026 as those funds fill their 8-12 slots per vintage.

The second-order insight: DACH-specific longevity/wellness capital is thinner than UK capital but more thesis-aligned. naturalX + Cherry + HV Capital + Atlantic Labs + IBB + Rheingau = the DACH stack. Alche being Berlin-based is a material advantage here vs. a London-based competitor pitching the same thesis — naturalX and Cherry both want a local Berlin longevity brand to back.
